

Christmas Thoughts 2006

By Vance C. Setterholm

Only as one can our mindful thoughts come to purity pleasing.

Only with His idea can our future
and piety
be nurtured.

Only Love,
reflecting His grace,
evokes simple kindness given us to embrace.

Only by caring and insistence on good can we match and define our source and our roots.

Unconditional love will carry us through to infinite pleasures beyond those which we choose.

The final last offering,
his gift to mankind,
will be peace, hope and charity, and humility that shines.

Reflecting God's grace in this season of sharing-All shall be one evermore in his caring.
